

Passenger information system

Vultron Kft.

Since founded in 1989 Vultron has been a key market player in urban public transportation Passenger Information (PI) and Automatic Vehicle Monitoring (AVMS) systems in Hungary, and also an appreciated developer/supplier in Europe and in the US.

Vultron exhibited an active participation in the EBSF (European Bus System of the Future) program, then became a member of the ITxPT (Information Technology and Transport Association) platform of UITP (International Association of Public Transport).